The Doors

Parys

North West.

It had been decided to try the Doors out to experience it now under "New Management". Last visit the service was so poor that Philip was never served with his order and had to leave and ride to Parys Airport to get a meal. Other bikers had been posting on Social Media that the food was great.

The main group left C/Ville 007 Engen Garage at 09h30 to ride to meet up with Lance & Sandra who had waited at the 4 ways stop just after Fochville near Greenspark. Lance & Sandra are interested in Ulysses and wanted to know more. Most know Lance and his Bully but Sandra is fairly new but is an Ex Wild Hog Fochville. Sandra has a Code A Licence, completed a number of riding courses & even completed the Road Captain Course. She has ridden alone on her GS 800 from Fochville to Kuruman in Northern Cape & back visiting family. This weekend coming she is riding her GS 800 & Lance on his Bully to Durban & South Coast via Clarens.

Arrived at the Doors venue to find parking under the shade of the trees. Philip and Belinda who had gone ahead in the cage booked tables for the group of 11.

Coffee was ordered and on its arrival at the table the orders for breakfast was placed, but the waitress must be new as she served the food before the serving the fresh farm bread so Allan had to go ask for it at the manager's station. From the menu below it can be seen that there is now only one breakfast menu.

SPYSKAART / MENU

ONTBYT

Plaas Ontbyt / Farm Breakfast

(bedien met varsgebakte plaasbrood, plaasbotter en konfyt / served with freshly baked farm bread, farm butter and jam)

Twee Eiers, Drie Repies Spek en
'n Boerewors

R60

Two Eggs, Three Strips of Bacon
And a Boerewors

Right is a picture of the Standard Breakfast served. Throw in a cuppa coffee for R20-00 and it's a R80-00 breakfast. (photo taken after nibbling a wee bit)

The eggs were served as ordered "Soft & Sunny side up". There was only two waiters to be seen so service could be a problem is the venue was full.

Posted the Menu so that one can get an idea of what The Doors offers.

Maybe one Sunday the Chapter could ride off a bit later so as to go try out their Lunch Buffet which is served from 12h00? Sure we can leave it up to the Road Captain(s) to plan.

After breakfast the group decided to carry out a recce of nearby places with the view of finding a closer venue to book for the 2021 Chapter's Year End Breakaway. There are roughly 9 x children who are in Varsity or School and it would be ideal if travelling could be kept to less than an hour on the Friday afternoon/evening to get to the venue. Places were visited to view by two Recce Parties.

Places visited being Umfula Resort, Eastco Pleasure Resort, Smiling Thru. Weltevreden Holiday & Caravan Park. The search is still on and it was suggested that a matrix check list should be drafted to assist when visiting a place to ensure if it meets with the minimum requirements.

Chapter Monthly Meeting
Carletonville

With the Covid-19 Regulations being adjusted down to Level 1 therefore allowing for a Chapter Meeting to be held.

Last meeting was held in November 2020.

With Rain threatening to spoil the meeting, the Patio PVC sides were put into place & when the clouds moved off eventually and the sides quickly came down. The heavens were kind to the Chapter this time around for once.

Mmmm is the braai ready or not?

7 men, hard at work - watching the fires

The first Monthly Chapter Meeting for the year & where the weather turned around in the Chapter's favour for a change so that all could enjoy a braai on the Real Braais and not the on the wet weather contingency namely a Gas Braai. The Social was just warming up when the electricity went off at 20h00 due to load shedding and the back generator was dragged out and started so members could see what they were doing when pouring the next drink or packing up.

All reported home safe.

- Bottomless Coffee
- Toast
- Chicken Livers
- Bacon Slices
- Scrambled Egg
- Baked Beans
- Mini Pork Sausages
- Fried Tomato Slices
- Finished off with Toast & Jam

One of the pensioner's group namely Carlos mentioned last week that the Randfontein Rugby Club had asked that we put it on the list for a Pensioners Breakfast Run. Rudy the manager of the Restaurant is also an old biker and still rides his original 1980 Honda CBX 1000 6 cylinder. The group had all supported the idea as Rudy was an old biker and still is very involved with biking and rides etc.

Well after the breakfast the general comment branded was that Rudy's Restaurant must stay on the list for yet another visit in the near future. Rudy and his staff had really gone the extra mile to serve up a great breakfast.
