10 April 2021.

Annual Potjie Competition.

Hervormde Church.

Carletonville.

The Potjie Chefs cooking start time was scheduled for around 11h00 for their dishes to be served up to the judges between 15h30 - 16h00. Beatrix, Gerald, Trudie & Allan met up at the Church Grounds just before 09h00 to set up the Ulysses Gazebos, tables etc.

Beatrix had a hand in getting African Flora set up on the Gazebo Poles. Gerald having to ride to cut tufts of long grass & tree branches which were fixed against the poles with cable ties.

Friday when Beatrix posted on the group that there was an estimate of 23 x persons going & needed to be feed out of the 3 x potjies & therefore the Chefs must ensure that the pots are FULL. That's when Allan decided to enter another potjie on the day making it 4 Potjies. Allan & Trudie on Saturday had to leave the venue just before 10h00 to go shopping for fresh vegetables for that 4th Potjie.

Allan discovered that he had left the 2.5 kgs of potjie meat at home in the fridge and had to leave the venue and go fetch the meat. The height of embarrassment?

Just on 11h00 the ingredient preparations got seriously under way. Gert made use of a No 4, whilst Gerald, Hanelie, Allan used No 3 Potjies. All potjie cooking was done via LPG gas.

The West Wits Potjie Chefs

Gert (Sgt at Arms) showing how to do a Potjie with Tripod for height control & bricks to protect the gas flames from been blown out..

Gerald [Road Capt] showing how to keep a secret of what's going on inside his Potjie. No wonder, Gerald came second overall for the day.

Hanelie showing the men just how to do a perfect Biltong & Pasta Potjie using fresh cream as the sauce.

Allan [President] using his favourite Cadac Potjie Cooker with built in wind protection for the Lamb Shanks, Beef & fresh vegetables .

Petro's Answer to a simple question was short and too the point & without any contradictions, misunderstanding or confusion. They got the message...

The Pres had to wear the Dunce Cap as he left the Potjie meat at home in the fridge & had to go fetch it else it was would have been a Vegan Potjie.

The Supporting A Team who continually supplied tips & hints and waited extremely patiently for the Potjie to be served up for tasting.

Specs caught peeping at what going on at Hanelie's Potjie.

With Johan working away from home Marie brought with some protection - 1 x over protective "Worshond"

Allan getting plenty of unsolicited advice from all the "Potjie Specialists". But he had an ACE up his sleeve. Yes & the proof was at the tasting.

Beatrix & Gerald meeting the brief regarding the Theme.

Mmmm - The ladies were busy plotting a strategic move to ensure Hanelie's Potjie was a super success.

What a great Team Effort from an amazing husband & wife with Gerald being awarded 1st Prize for his Starter of Chicken Livers, Beatrix won the 1st prize for the best desert & Gerald came 2nd place Overall with the Potjie.

Newest Chapter member, Marie, just wanted to wear her Cut to proudly display her colours.

It was a truly an awesome warm autumn day out spent with great people in supporting an annual Church Charity Event. West Wits had 16 x Chapter Members plus 5 family members having attended the event.

The West Wits Group being by far the largest group for the day. The food cooked over the somewhat 5 hours was very tasty and all 4 potjies chefs and their assistants need to be complimented on a job well done.

07 April 2021.
Mark's Memorial Gathering.
Die Kasteel.
Carletonville.

Petro at the last meeting had suggested a get together on the evening of the 07th April 2021 at Die Kasteel on what would have been their wedding anniversary and to celebrate Mark's life. Mark had been taken from this world so suddenly on the 22 Dec 2020.

The Members gathered at Die Kasteel from 17h30 for 18h00. Pre-orders for Pizzas had been sent the day before to Specs & Hanelie who dully collected them at after 18h00.

The weather had a chill to it together with a bit of rain so the group chose to sit inside the venue.

Specs gave a short speech & a toast to honour Mark memory. A couple of great memories revolving around Mark were shared with all.

The pizzas boxes were opened and silence fell in the room as the pizzas were enjoyed. Thanks went out to Specs for suggesting the new Pizza place in the CBD.

Before 21h00 members started to say goodbyes and to return to their homes.

All Reported Home Safe.

Pensioners Breakfast Run

13 April 2021.

Pensioners Breakfast Run.

Lion's Den Restaurant.

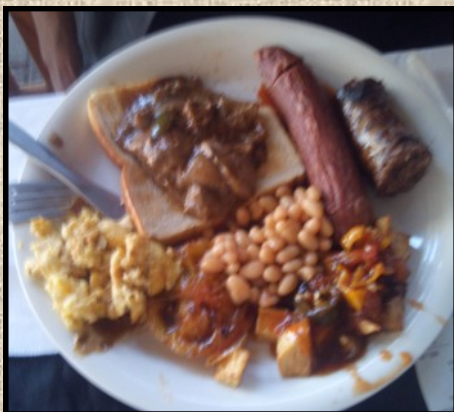

173 Ontdekkers Road.

Roodepoort.

On Tuesday morning the group met up at the Dros in Krugersdorp and 25 x bikers set off on the Pensioner's Breakfast ride.

The Lions Den kitchen owner Craig is also a Patched rider had asked the Pensioners at the ride of the 6 April 2021 if they would like to ride out and give his establishment called Lion's Den a try. The group had agreed as it is always preferable to support the fellow biking community.

Toast [White or Brown]

Well the only complaint heard was from someone saying that he had over eaten, the food was so nice & plentiful. A Buffet is always great to feed 20 - 30 hungry bikers quickly. Serving is so much faster and all can basically sit down and eat together.

This being a new venue for the group but saying it must remain on the short list for a return visit.
